

WASHINGTON, D. C., JUNE 18, 1916.

A BEAUTY SPOT OF WASHINGTON U. S. BOTANIC GARDEN

View of Bartholdi Fountain, in Center of the Garden.

Main Conservatory, United States Botanic Garden.

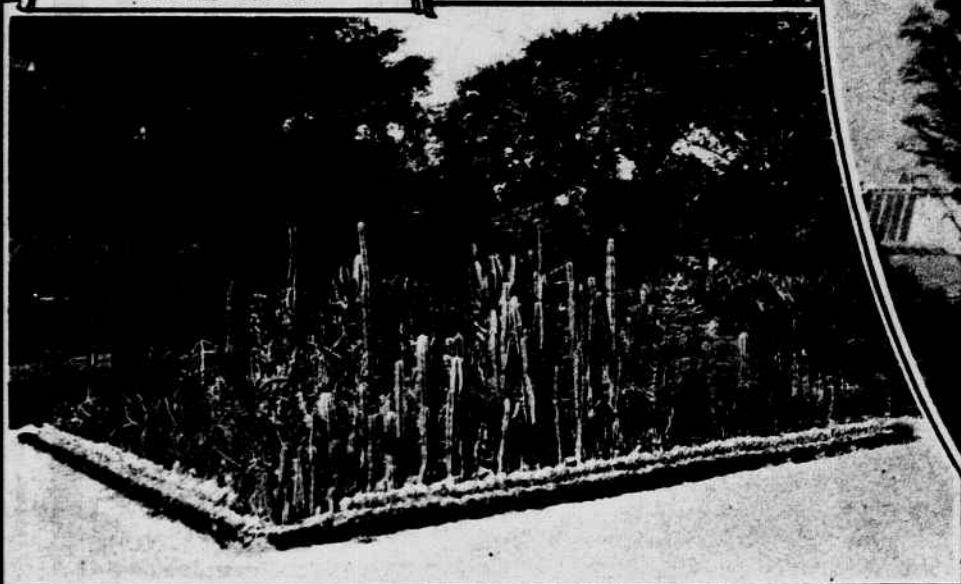

George W. Hess,
Superintendent United States
Botanic Garden.

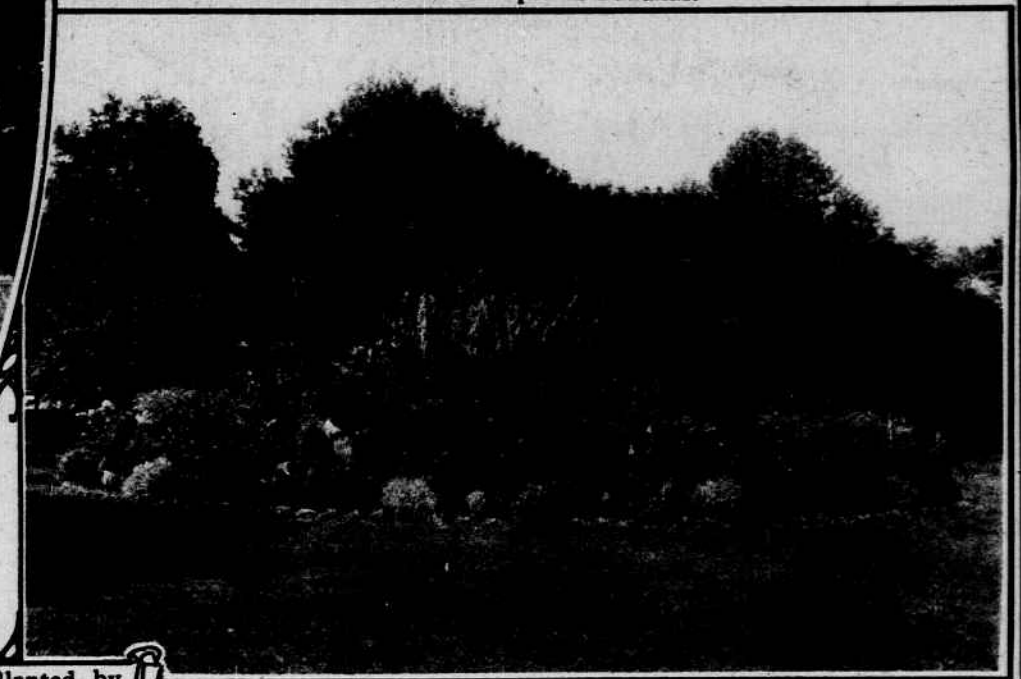

Bald Cypress Trees, Planted by
Two Famous Actors, Booth and Forrest, and Known as the Actors' Trees.

Bed of Musa Species Bananas.

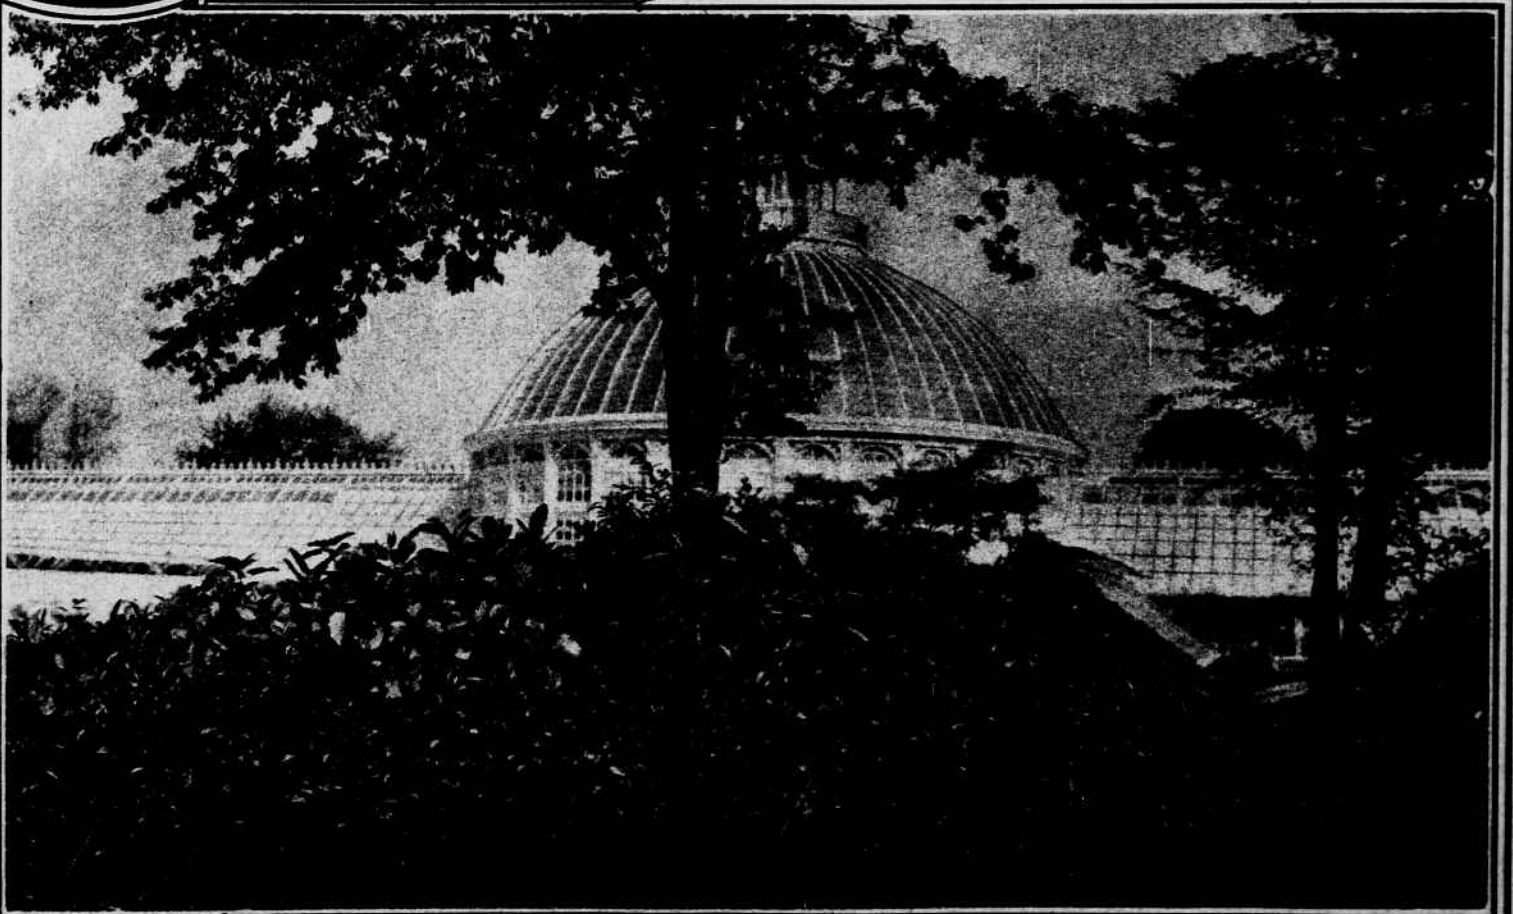

Bed of Cacti from Central and South America.

Grass Bed Containing Ornamental Grasses. Center Plants
Are Arundo Donax, or Elephant Grass.

European Hornbeam, Planted by Abraham Lincoln.

Bed of Ficus or Fig Trees, Containing Many Ornamental Varieties; Some Used Commercially, Others for Decorative Purposes.